

Pro Natura Fund for Overseas Grant

Application Form B

1. IMPORTANCE OF PROJECT IN NATURE CONSERVATION

(1) In approximately 200 words, write down briefly and clearly the importance of this project in terms of nature conservation.

XXX is classified as Critically Endangered (CR) species in IUCN Red List. However...

You can enlarge the font size to emphasize the point, but do not enlarge the box size.

(2) Describe the background issue of this conservation project and details about how this project came up with.

(3) Describe details and features about the objects and the area where the project will take place. If it is possible, upload the image file of map via Japanese member..

4-5 geographic locations from 2,500 m a.s.l to 3,000 m a.s.l... (see the uploaded map)

(4) If this is a continual application, provide a description of the followings.

<Why is the continual application needed?>

<Describe the changes from the previous project, such as new approaches to the goal, new analysis method and so on.>

If the application is not a continual one, you do not need to fill in.

Please keep the information within each page and refrain from creating new pages.

(You may delete this text before submission.)

2. METHOD OF PROJECT IN NATURE CONSERVATION

(1) Describe briefly the concrete goals of project.

- Investigate the number of XXX in ABC National Park...
- ...

Write down clearly and as precisely as possible.

(2) Describe the methods to achieve the goals described in (1) such as methods of field survey and/or analysis, and plan of activities.

Explain what kind of strategy is to be taken, what kind of tools are used, and what kind of analysis is taken in this project.

(3) Describe briefly how to encourage local people to involve the project positively and how to build up cooperative relations with them.

(4) In regards to the budget plan, please write down any notable points if any. If there is a significant proportion allocated to a specific expense category such as c. Commission fee or d. personnel, explain the reasons.

If the expenditure of particular item is quite a lot, please explain the reason.

Please keep the information within each page and refrain from creating new pages.

(You may delete this text before submission.)

3. EXPECTED OUTCOMES

- (1) In approximately 100 words, write down briefly the expected unique outcomes of this project.

This project will contribute to raise awareness on the importance of....

You can enlarge the font size to emphasize the point.

- (2) Describe the prospect of this project for nature conservation after the grant period ends. Be specific, including contributions to the nature conservation in the project area.

Please include the detailed future plan of this project.

Please keep the information within each page and refrain from creating new pages.

(You may delete this text before submission.)

4. Achievements

(1) Project Representative

Describe the academic background and scholarly achievements of project representative.

Do not extend the size of this box. If you cannot write whole history, please write some research achievements which are related to this project.

(2) Japanese Member

Describe the academic background and scholarly achievements of Japanese member.

Describe any relevant achievements of Japanese member related to the proposal project or applicant group's activities.

(3) For Continual Applications Only: Detail the achievements for the nature conservation resulting from the previous grant term.

- a)
- b)
- c)

(4) List the publication, events and projects achievements related to this proposal project.

These may be from project members. For the continual applications, you can list the achievement only if there are more than ones listed in (3). The judges may refer to them.

- a) Name of author (year). Title of publication. Name of journal: page numbers.
- b)
- c)

Project member's work can be included if it is related to this project.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION!

Please keep the information within each page and refrain from creating new pages.

(You may delete this text before submission.)